It's Wednesday, so that means "Reiki Article Day" Mondays and Wednesdays: take 5 minutes to read a Reiki article

Reiki articles for you to read on Mondays and Wednesdays. Each one will take about 5 minutes or so to read, and hopefully you will find something interesting, informative, helpful or thought-provoking, maybe even challenging.

So without further ado, here's....

Today's Article "Feng Shui Your Reiki!"

Hiya,

Many of you will be familiar with Feng Shui, the Oriental art of placement, where you arrange your living environment to allow smooth flow of chi through your home, eliminating areas where chi will stagnate, and slowing down the speed of fast-rushing chi.

So what has that to do with Reiki?

Well they both deal with chi, but what I am really thinking of is applying the basic principles of Feng Shui to our practice of Reiki. This may seem a little strange, but please bear with me.

Get rid of your clutter!

The basic principle of Feng Shui, the first thing you have to do before you do anything else, is to get rid of your clutter, because a cluttered environment leads to a cluttered life. Only once you have rid yourself of your unnecessary bits and pieces should you move in to apply the other more specific principles of placement.

So could we de-clutter our practice of Reiki, what would that be like, and how could we achieve that? Is our Reiki cluttered now?

So, that's all from me for today.

Take care,

Taggart ;)

Taggart can help you to reclaim your authentic self, letting go of any anxiety, low self esteem, excess weight, to emerge again as the person you used to be.

"These sessions have been truly life changing and I find I now have so much more energy to devote to work and creative projects. I can more easily embody the essence of my true self now and after years of struggling with anxiety, I cannot get over just how remarkable this actually is."
